

Shenandoah County Chamber of Commerce
Community Leadership Program

Purpose:

To develop and foster leadership potential in the community to ensure citizen involvement, community prosperity, and overall community success in Shenandoah County.

Objectives:

To develop the skills of participants so they will be able to provide the leadership necessary to address community needs.

To enhance an understanding of the complex issues facing Shenandoah County through educational programs, exposure to community leaders and the structures they operate within, and through discussions on current issues facing the County.

Format:

This is a nine-month program from September through May. Sessions will be held once a month during this timeframe on a Friday and will generally run 8:00-3:30. Lunch and a light breakfast are provided for each session. Topics include Leadership, Agriculture/Tourism, Local Government, Education, Public Safety, Health Care, Business/Industry, Non-Profit/Media, and the final session involves group presentations from the cohort. Sessions are led by a combination of community leaders, professional facilitators, and specialists in the respective fields.

Tuition:

Tuition must be paid up front by either the participant or employer (participants or their employer's must be a current Chamber member). Limited scholarships may be available and are awarded based on need. The tuition for the 2017-18 program is $250.

Application:

An application form must be completed by all participants. The maximum number of participants will be determined by the Chamber each year.

Board of Directors:

Consists of selected business leaders invited by the Chairperson to select the Leadership Shenandoah County participants. Each Director will coordinate and facilitate their respective Session.

The Board consists of the Chamber President Elect, County Administrator, SCPS Superintendent, Chamber Executive Director and representatives from Industry/Business, Non-Profit, Healthcare, and Media.

PURPOSE

The Leadership Shenandoah County program is designed to expose current and future leaders to all aspects of Shenandoah County. The program's purpose is:

- To identify community leaders of diverse backgrounds
- To develop their potential and desire to accept civic responsibilities and leadership roles
- To expose community leaders to the problems and opportunities that face Shenandoah County
- To build a realistic understanding of leadership in today's complex society
- To open a dialogue among emerging and current community leaders
- To acquaint leaders with the processes, programs, opportunities and challenges for individual involvement in Shenandoah County

SELECTION CRITERIA

The most important factor in participant selection is identifying those individuals who are most apt to use their leadership knowledge and skills for the long-term benefit of the community.

Based upon this criteria, individuals selected will:

1. Have demonstrated commitment through past and current community activities
2. Have attained a leadership position within their business or organization or have the potential for advancement to senior leadership positions.
3. Have a sincere commitment, motivation and interest in serving their community
4. Be interested in, or intend to seek, leadership roles in the community
5. Represent a cross section of the business community of all ages and geographic representation, including government representatives, professional leaders, and community service volunteers.

The selection committee is comprised of the Leadership Shenandoah County Board of Directors

GRADUATION & ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS

So that participants can gain full benefit from the Leadership Shenandoah County program, course completion is based upon meeting attendance requirements for class sessions. The equivalent of more than two days of absences prohibits graduation at the end of the session year. Attendance will be checked in the morning, after lunch, and at the end of the day. If a day includes a bus tour, class members are required to ride the bus during the entire session. The bus tour attendance is required except in cases where there is the need for a documented accommodation. If attendance on any session day is not possible the Leadership Shenandoah County Executive Director must be notified.

TUITION

Tuition covers the cost of all session materials, field trips, refreshments, meals, transportation and the graduation ceremony. Limited scholarships may be available for qualified scholarship applicants.
